sertions upon the records of previous tolera scares, which records can be contited by any one. It is a matter of history ist during these scares people rush to the lay-houses in greater numbers, to distract feir minds and to forget such a hideous topic conversation as cholera. Up to the me when the scourge begins to decimate be population men and women will go to be theatres in such droves that it is the authorities who finally have to close the houses a order to check the spread of the contagion. Bits, I believe, was the case in 1865. Any anager who has been in the business long nough will tell you this. There is a mania of theatre-going during these periods, and then the disease gains a foothold this mania as to be stopped. So, you see, the effect is vacity contrary to what a great many peoble believe it to be."

I think the inclosures will prove to you conclusively that so far as I am concerned I have been perfectly honest in the statements I have made to The Evening World and other newspapers. I don't himk you will ever find me giving out news that I cannot verify. Trusting this will satisfy you as to my honesty in the matter, I am, yours truly, J. E. STLLIVAN.

goes from here to Canada, and, if politics mean anything, it should be eminently successful and talked about there.

Business Manager Charles Barton, of the Casino is compiling a valuable little book to be given away at the last performance of comic opera at this house. The book will contain the names of the comic operas that the Casino has produced, the casts that interpreted them and other information. It will be worth keeping as a matter of record.

Frances Wilson was to have sailed for Europe Wednesday, but declined to go on account of the cholera scare. He did not see where the pleasure of the trip would come in. If things look brighter by Wednesday of the coming week Mr. Wilson will sail for the other side on board the Teutonic.

Our next-door neighbors, the Brooklyns, are not covering themselves with glory on their Western tour. They had Comiskey's Cincinnatis for opponents yesterday and came out the small end of the horn by a score of 10 to 7. Thus the chances of having a pennant in this neighborhood this year are growing steadily and beautifully less.

The following games are scheduled for to-day:

The Coney Island Athletic Ciub will, on the 20th, have a dual athletic event in which the sporting public is deeply interested. The principal attraction, of course, will be the trst fight, between Jimmie Lynch, the underested 122-peund champion, and that "philosopher of the ring," Johany Griffin, of Braintree, Mass, and the conqueror of Isanc O'Nelli Weir, the "Beliast Spider." Both men are exceptionally clover, check full of courage and game. As they are of nearly the same weight, height and reach, the contest is sure to be a most determined one. The lads will battle for a purse of $2,500. The second bout will be between two tantams, Bob Cumingham.

of the Brooklyn Athletic Club, and Sam Kelly, of the West Sides. The battle will be limited to fifteen rounds and the lads will light at 140 pounds. This will be the professional denut of both boys, and they are both striving might and main to get into good condition. As they are game, scientific and determined fighters, a rattling contest can condensity be anticipated. Kelly is training with Jimmy Lynch, at Atlantic Highlands.
